WHY DOES
#ASEFYLS MATTER?

The ASEF Young Leaders Summit (ASEFYLS) is the go-to place for young people willing to un-learn, re-learn and learn new concepts, strategies and actions on how to create sustainable impact in society.

ASEFYLS is an experiential platform for Asian and European students and young professionals that adapts a 360° approach on leadership development. ASEFYLS recognises that leadership takes place across all spectrums in society: at home, in lecture halls, in board rooms, within the community and from the streets up to the political arena. Leadership is for those who are determined to take a leap by asking questions, to critical-thinking, action-planning and collaboration.

The ASEFYLS takes place alongside the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM) Summits, where Heads of States from the 51 ASEM partner countries, the EU and the ASEAN Secretariat meet to discuss the status and future of Asia-Europe relations.¹

ASEFYLS is based on 5 pillars:

#knowledge_stretching

Development of fresh and rewarding insights to equip both recognised and unsung young leaders with a tool-kit for action

#action_oriented

Commitments and co-creation of spin-off activities linked to leadership and sustainable development in local communities

#network_based

Space for networking among youth, community leaders, responsible business leaders, thought-provoking academics and policy-makers

#leadership_exchange

Opportunity for participation of ASEFYLS participants in the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM) Summit and relevant Ministers' Meetings

#reciprocity_focused

Joint learning and sharing of time, talent & resources beyond the ASEFYLS framework for greater impact

The ASEM dialogue addresses political, economic and cultural issues, with the objective of strengthening the relationship between the two regions, in a spirit of mutual respect and equal partnership. WHAT IS #ASEFYLS3?

The 3rd ASEF Young Leaders Summit (ASEFYLS3) will take place in conjunction with the 12th ASEM Summit (ASEM12) on 15-19 October 2018 in Brussels, Belgium. ASEFYLS3 focuses on Ethical Leadership, the human-centred form of responsible leadership, and aims to dismantle and assemble the concept thereof: in the context of the self-leadership, team leadership and societal leadership.

But how can one distinguish between a leader and an ethical leader? Does it show in the decision-making process or the impact of the decision taken? And how shall one navigate between diverse and competing values and expectations, from a micro to a macro scale. The ASEFYLS3 aims to nourishes ethically literate leaders by providing a platform for reflection, dialogue and practice.

ASEFYLS3 focuses on values and challenges of ethical leadership embedded in 11 spheres:

1. Culture
2. Economy
3. Education
4. Environment
5. Family
6. Finance
7. Media
8. Politics
9. Religion and spirituality
10. Science and technology
11. Sports

The 4-day forum will conclude with an "ASEFYLS3 Call for Action & Commitments on Ethical Leadership".

ASEFYLS3 is preceded by 2 ASEFYLS Navigators Trainings in Pune, India and Warsaw, Poland respectively. The trainings serve as a springboard and capacity building opportunity for the youth facilitators who will guide the ASEFYLS3 participants during the on-site discussions and spin-off activity preparations.
